Sharjah, United Arab Emirates—Sharjah Art Foundation (SAF) announces the preliminary schedule of speakers, events, and exhibitions for the 2014 March Meeting (MM2014), taking place March 13-16, in Sharjah, UAE.

Conceived by Sharjah Biennial 12 (SB12) curator Eungie Joo as an integral part of the Biennial—opening in March 2015—the seventh annual MM2014 is a four-day symposium including presentations about past projects in Sharjah and the UAE, introductions to the work of artists who will be commissioned for SB12, sessions for collective research and analysis, keynote presentations by leading figures in the region, and time for informal conversation.

As a departure point for SB12, MM2014 sets a tone of collaboration and exchange for the coming year. This year, SAF will host eight correspondents who will respond to the meetings through writing, photography, and other diaristic forms.

March Meeting 2014 will coincide with exhibitions of work by Rasheed Araeen, Susan Hefuna, and Wael Shawky, on view March 13 through June 13, 2014. SAF-commissioned films Traitors (2012) by Sean Gullette, and Revisiting Tarab (2013) by Fouad Elkoury will screen at SAF's Mirage City Cinema during MM2014, along with Wael Shawky's Cabaret Crusades (2010-2013) on March 22. Also opening on March 16 is "The March Project" featuring new commissions by early career artists, curated by SAF President and Director Hoor Al Qasimi.
