Summer 2017 Sharjah Art Institute Adult Education Programme

The Adult Education Programme at the Sharjah Art Institute has organised courses and workshops for summer 2017 that focus on different aspects of contemporary art practice. Taking place between 6 July and 30 August, the sessions are open to participants aged 16 and above.

All Sharjah Art Foundation events are free and open to the public, and all the materials used in the courses are provided by Sharjah Art Foundation.

To register please send an email to institute@sharjahart.org or phone 06 568 8800.

Summer Camp 4

Course 1: Sketching Live Models (Advanced Level)

Sunday to Thursday, 13–30 August

9:00 am–1:00 pm

Participants in this course will learn advanced drawing techniques for making quick sketches as well as drawing a live human body model. This instruction will be accompanied by an illustrative introduction into the structure of the human skeleton for purposes of drawing and painting.

Course 2: Sculptural Aesthetics (Advanced Level)

Sunday and Tuesday, 13–29 August

4:00 pm–8:00 pm

As they create sculptures from materials they select themselves, participants will learn the most important artistic elements in determining a sculpture's external shape and its relationship with the surrounding environment.

Course 3: An Academic Study of the Human Head (Advanced Level Portrait Sculpting)

Monday, Wednesday and Thursday, 14–30 August

9:00 am–1:00 pm

Taking into consideration muscular and skeletal anatomy, participants in this course will create sculptures of the normal-sized human head with clay.
