Summer programme

Turn your memories into comics
Course for children

With Wafaa Ibrahim

Dates: Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday 17–21 July 2022
Timings: 5:00 – 7:00 pm
Location: The Flying Saucer
Ages: 6–10
Languages: English and Arabic

In this course, participants will be introduced to comic books, a visual representation of storytelling that combines illustrations and text. The participants will recall a strong memory, regardless of the emotion (happiness, sadness, anger, etc.) they felt at the time, and turn it into a drawing.

Story of an object
Course for children

With Aysha Al Hamrani

Dates: Sunday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, 24–28 July 2022
Timings: 5:00 – 7:00 pm
Location: The Flying Saucer
Ages: 11–15
Languages: English and Arabic

Participants will begin the course by leafing through Corniche, a comic anthology compiling the works of illustrators and comic book artists. After developing a basic understanding of comics and how they can be presented in different styles, participants will create a story inspired by an object of their choice. They will finish their comic by adding colours and text to the illustrations.
